

TREND: SILVER

When extravagant embellishments ruled the design world not too long ago, gold was the metallic shade of choice. Now that designers are moving toward simpler forms of adornment, silver, gold's subtler sister, is taking over. In the form of chrome, platinum or silver itself, we predict that this scintillating shade will shine for quite some time to come.

—Abby Kellett

Menina porcelain figurine with platinum decoration from the Re-Deco collection by Jaime Hayon, $4,300, Lladro

FOR STORE DETAILS SEE
RESOURCES ON PAGE 140